Case Name: Foreword

Case ID: 2023212210

So I wanted to start with a cheerful "Welcome back to PonyCon Holland!", but it seems that we have other priorities now. Our mascots Waffles, Poffertje and Fan Brush are in trouble! They are accused of... I can't even bring myself to say it. But the bottom line is: we need you, dear visitors, to help them. Solve the mystery together with your friends and find out what really happened. Hopefully by the end of the convention we will know. To work!

With that out of the way, it's time for me to welcome you all back. Another year has flown by, so it's time to pony up again. This PCH will be a series of mysterious events, panels, workshops and so on. We have a lot in store for you and many have worked their flanks off to give you the best con experience again. So now it is up to you to have fun, make new friends and dance deep into the night!

We have really stepped up our game with our Guests of Honour: G.M. Berrow, AJ Bridel and Nicole Oliver. And of course a special shoutout to all the artists, musicians, panelists and other community guests, who are helping to make PonyCon Holland 2023 a con to remember.

Grab your magnifying glass, your best pony outfit and your friends and let's all have fun together!

Rutger Janssen / Steam Loco
Chairpony of PonyCon Holland

Unraveling Hope: A Detective's Pursuit of Childhood Magic

Picture a young life abruptly reshaped by a powerful shock, a trauma too big for its tender years. Lingering sadness casting its shadow on a child's every day. Concerned parents, burdened by worries. Children navigating emotional agony. Unlike physically unwell children, the scars of trauma often remain unseen, complicating the fabric of daily existence.

In the midst of this, the Dream4Kids Foundation emerges as a guiding light. Tailoring bespoke Dream Days, where a child's most cherished dreams materialize into reality.

Months and even years after the Dream Day, the caretakers and aid organizations bear witness to its profound impact. The echoes of a Dream Day resonate far beyond the confines of a single day. It ignites a spark of optimism in these children, offering them a new lens through which to glimpse their future. They grasp the notion that their dreams can indeed be realized. Through these efforts, we restore a sense of anticipation for the future in children scarred by trauma.

Our loftiest aspiration is to craft a unique Dream Day for every child aged 6 to 12 who carries the weight of trauma. This aspiration drives us, propelling us to etch a significant mark on their lives, and rekindling their belief in what lies ahead.

Dear Detective,

As you might have noticed we have got ourselves into quite a pickle. Me and my friends are about to go to jail! And if we go to jail, we cannot organize another PonyCon Holland! Please, detectives of all ages, we need your help! We are the prime suspects and without you, the future of our convention is doomed. We were working our flanks off at Happy Park to pay off the debt to the Wizard for that overly expensive spell book Poffertje bought last edition! We didn't want to hurt anyone. Gather all the clues and help us.

P.S.: yes, this is a call for help

SUSPECT No. 1: Stroopwafeltje

Cheerful, Loud, Loved by everyone, the main mascot of PCH. Ran a string-pulling game at the fair. Could he be the criminal we are looking for?

SUSPECT No. 2: Poffertje

Sweet and innocent as the poffertjes she makes. OR IS SHE? Could that sweet smile hide the brilliant mastermind behind all of this?

SUSPECT No. 3: Fan Brush

Artist with too much sass. Were they finally fed up with only drawing caricatures?

Scene around the crime

See this park here. It's called Walkartpark. Everything of import is located around it.

On the Southern tip of it is where all the action takes place: PCH, the carnival. Easily mistaken for the misnomer of "Figi", for some reason.

The square to the North, that's downtown. It is where you'll find some grub. Restaurants, grocery stores, ice cream, you name it.

Above the Northern tip of the park is where you'll find an ATM for much needed cash to spend at the vendors'. It won't talk back, but will spit out bills. There's an alternative at the other end of downtown.

Now if you lack wheels or wings of your own, don't fret. Regular bus traffic can be located in the South West. They'll take you to the city of Utrecht- or to Driebergen-Zeist Station, where the friendship express can take you to any destination. A helpful route planner can be found at 9292.nl, which will feature departure times, walking routes and required transfers, on top of the fares involved.

Most buses and trains accept payment through contactless debit or credit cards, Mastercard and Visa specifically.

And most importantly, the hidden treasure of Zeist. You can find [illegible]

Solve the mystery

Step right up, fillies and gentecolts

The mascots are in big trouble and we need smart detectives to help untangle this case.
Who is the real culprit, and who is innocent? Only you can solve this mystery!
You can do this by participating in various activities throughout the weekend. For each of these, you will gain a stamp at the back of your badge.

After collecting 4 stamps you can go to the info booth and exchange your four stamps for one point (marble) that is added to the collective-convention-mystery-solving-progress-vessel. As this vessel fills up with points more and more clues will be unveiled as you solve the big mystery with your fellow detectives.

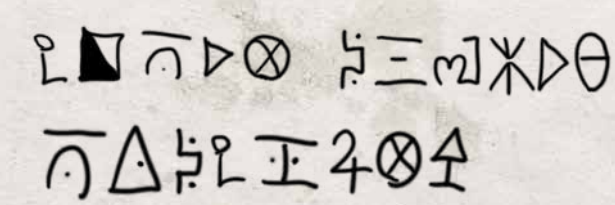
Keep your eyes open outside of these activities as well, because there might just be some clues hidden around the rest of the convention, a good detective never misses a detail!

On the back of your badge, you will find twelve numbered stamping areas. These correspond to the following objectives:

1. String-pulling game. A classic fair game where your objective is to pick a right sting that contains the clue, can you guess which one it will be? (see the games on the schedule)
2. Duck angling. No fair is complete without some angling for duckies. Perfect to test your patience. (see the games on the schedule)
3. Can throwing. Knock down those cans and knock them down hard. Maybe you even get a prize? Disclaimer: Don't expect anything fancy.
4. Haunted House. Are you scared? Well, you should be! Go through the Haunted House to earn your clue (see haunted house on the schedule)
5. Oh no! Poffertje has lost her hat. Can you find out where it is? If you bro-hoof the individual who has it, you've earned yourself a stamp

6. We might be different detectives, but working together is important. Take a picture with another detective as you are solving the case. Sillier the better!*
7. It is important to stay hydrated during the whole con. Take a picture of yourself drinking water. Hail hydrate.*
8. Show a volunteer at the info booth an item that is signed
9. Participate in a workshop or a panel. There is so much more to see than just the mane stage. Participate in a workshop or a panel to earn a stamp
10. Stay until the end of the concert on Saturday evening to earn this stamp. It's time to PARTYYY!
11. Gather 10 plushies and photograph yourself with them to earn a stamp*
12. This con book is a mystery of itself. If you can decipher the phrase bellow, and report your findings to the right authorities, you earn this mysterious stamp.

* These require a photo to be presented at the infobooth



Special Thanks

It takes a lot of special people to put together a convention. The PCH Committee has worked without a break since last year to make this edition happen. But organizing a convention takes a lot more people. Without these incredible individuals, it would have been impossible. We would like to thank all of them.

Our guests

Panels, Workshops, Musical performances, delightful anecdotes from the industry, and many more experiences at PCH were made possible because of our guests. From panelists, community guests, musicians, and of course our Guests of Honour.

Our vendors

Many attendees hopefully were able to exchange their bits for awesome merch. PCH23 might be over, but our vendors ensured we could take a little piece of it home.

Our venue - The Figi Theater hotel

Three years in a row they put up with our shenanigans now. It has been a blast working with Figi, and their professional team.

Our volunteers

It is a fact of life that conventions can not run without these maniacs helping out. You have seen their blue shirts all convention long, making sure that everyone had a good time. Thank you all for your hard work!

Our tech team

Without them we wouldn't even get the lights on. These people work extremely hard behind the scenes all weekend to give you the best experience possible.

Our sponsors

A convention costs a lot of money and boy, did you all deliver. The people willing to fund the convention deserve a heartfelt thank you.

Our visitors

Last but definitely not least are the attendees of PCH, you all. Thank you all so much for making PonyCon Holland amazing once again. Maybe we will see each o ther again.

Typt, with the greatest of gratitudes,
PonyCon Holland's Organizing team.
